15th Anniversary Year

Mr. George Bush
 Director
 Central Intelligence Agency

Dear Mr. Bush:

I am writing to request a meeting with you for the twelve international journalists now participating as Fellows with the World Press Institute.

As you may recall, the WPI provides an opportunity for professional foreign journalists to come to this country for a first-hand look at the realities and people behind U.S. news. We feel this personal insight is invaluable in fostering better understanding between the peoples and nations of the world.

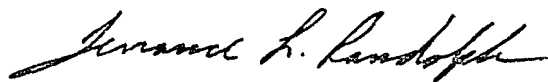

The group will be in Washington from April 18 to May 8. Would you be free to meet with them the afternoon of Wednesday, April 28? If this time is not convenient, perhaps you might suggest one that is better for you.

As to topic, the group will just be finishing their eight month tour of this country, and Washington will be a chance for them to meet the leaders and decision makers in the various fields they have seen. A brief introduction to your duties and responsibilities followed by a question and answer session would facilitate the discussion.

I have enclosed a brochure with the names, biographies and photographs of this year's group.

I thank you for your consideration of this matter and look forward to your reply.

Sincerely,

Terrance L. Randolph
 Program Director

DCI:

I suggest that you not do a 15-minute telephone interview which is a rather long interview, incidently.

I suggest that I reply saying that your schedule is terribly full at the present moment because of the re-organization. In a couple of months Mr. Roberts should try and get in touch with me and see if there is some way we can work out something for WTKO.

Dear Mr. Bush:

I recently interviewed William Colby prior to his appearance at Cornell University. The interview was informative, and was an aid in presently the problems facing the CIA and the concerns of the U.S. Citizen.

Would it be possible to follow up on the Colby interview, with a 15 minute, telephone interview with yourself?. Although we are not ABC, CBS, or NBC, I hope this request will warrant the same consideration.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Clemens,

Your kind letter to Mr. Bush has been referred to me to answer. It was certainly thoughtful of you to name Mr. Bush an honorary member of the Mark Twain Society.

I am sending along a copy of a recent address Mr. Bush made in North Carolina which I hope you will find interesting. I am sure you will agree that he shares the same goals for America that Mark Twain so magnificently expressed.

Thank you again for your thoughtfulness.

Sincerely,
